11. Real and Ideal Computers

1. Symbols and numbers.
2. Error and accuracy.
3. Finity and infinity.
4. Actuality and possibility.
5. Competence and performance.
6. Computing a function vs. instantiating (or satisfying) a function.